

Annie H. Boatman

December 2, 1924 - August 10, 2018

Graveside service for Mrs. Annie H. Boatman, 93, of Oxford, will be held Monday, August 13, 2018 at 11:00 a.m. at Forestlawn Gardens. The Reverend Don Barnett will officiate.

Mrs. Boatman passed away August 10, 2018 at Northeast Alabama Regional Medical Center. She is preceded in death by her husband, Ervin R. Boatman; son, Derriel Boatman; grandson, Ryan Stephens; sister, Edith M. Hall; and brother, Emmet D. Harless.

Mrs. Boatman loved watching the Atlanta Braves, quilting, her flowers, gardening, and working word puzzles.

Mrs. Boatman was a longtime resident of Oxford. She was a member of the Coldwater United Methodist Church, and before her death was the oldest member of the church. She retired as a nurse from Noble Army Hospital at Fort McClellan after working for 25 years.

Her survivors include her daughters, Virginia Young (Paul), Kaye Stephens (Larry), Judy Broome (Bill); son, Morris Boatman; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren; sisters, Sue Fair, Nell Amador; and several nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite charity.

Special thanks to Dr. Grana and the nursing staff on the 9th floor of NEARMC.

Online condolences may be sent to www.klbrownfuneralhome.com

K.L. Brown Memory Chapel
620 Golden Springs Road
Anniston, AL 36207
256-231-2334

Cemetery

Forestlawn Gardens

730 Golden Springs Road

Anniston, AL, 36207

Comments

“ Annie was one of my mother’s cousins. My mother was Eunice White Llon, who passed away on Good Friday, April 14, 2017. I happened to find Annie’s address a couple of years ago when mom was still alive. They became pen pals. Once my mom passed, I continued to write her. I was so happy they re-connected. Your family are in our prayers.

Valerie Sprinkle - November 06, 2018 at 10:52 PM